

Annotated bibliography on Africa-China Security Relations

Project Title	Annotated bibliography on Africa-China Security Relations
Project Summary	The internship will produce a list of key academic, policy, and other resources with summaries of each within the field of China-Africa relations focused on the security sector.
Country	Germany
Country/Region of Focus	Africa

Project Description

The intern will identify, read, summarize and organize key sources on the security sector aspects of Africa-China relations. The intern will be asked to post both their final product and individual sources or links on a collaborative knowledge management portal for a group of experts on African international relations. Knowledge of African international relations is important. Ability to read other languages widely spoken in Africa is a plus, as is familiarity with any recognized citation system and portals (no programming knowledge required). If interested, the intern will be supported in writing and hopefully publishing a short article based on their work.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)

Analytical writing

Political Analysis

Research

Additional Information

The intern will be one of several joining us and will liaise with experts in the field of African international relations. AFRICOM staff will provide guidance, feedback, recommendations, connections to a community of practice, and government/international relations career mentoring. Interns can opt to be featured on an APAN site for related researchers and for interns who turn in final products, AFRICOM staff will provide a letter of recommendation.

Language Requirements

None